

Duke Energy CEO statement on 2014 Coal Ash Management Act

Aug. 20, 2014

CHARLOTTE, N.C. -

Lynn Good, president, CEO and vice chairman of Duke Energy, issued the following statement regarding the North Carolina General Assembly's approval today of the 2014 Coal Ash Management Act:

“The comprehensive action by North Carolina lawmakers gives Duke Energy direction to move forward with a stronger standard for the management of coal ash at our facilities. We will immediately begin adapting our strategy to meet the requirements in the 2014 Coal Ash Management Act.”
