Attention: Jeanine S. Watson, Esq.

Reference: Revised Service Agreement No. 3058

Dear Ms. Watson:

On February 12, 2015, PJM Interconnection, L.L.C. (PJM) filed a revised executed nonconforming interconnection construction service agreement (Big Savage ICSA) among PJM, Big Savage, LLC (Big Savage), and The Potomac Edison Company (Potomac Edison).¹ The Big Savage ICSA together with the Big Savage Interconnection Service Agreement facilitate the interconnection to the PJM transmission system of the 200 MW Big Savage Wind Farm located in the Big Savage and Little Savage Mountain areas of Somerset County, Pennsylvania. The Big Savage ICSA contains ministerial revisions and updates for queue numbers and revised interconnection facilities. You state the Big Savage ICSA is a nonconforming agreement because the Big Savage ICSA contains non-standard terms and conditions. Specifically, you state that Section 1.0 of the Big Savage ICSA includes non-conforming language clarifying that the Big Savage ICSA supersedes the Big Savage 2011 ICSA, Original Service Agreement No. 3058. You further state that Schedule M memorializes the parties' agreement with respect to available suspension rights under the Big Savage ICSA.

Pursuant to the authority delegated to the Director, Division of Electric Power Regulation – East, under 18 C.F.R. § 375.307, your submittal is accepted for filing,
